Socks/Shoes:

Socks - White or black only

Shoes – Solid colors only

Pre-K students are not required to wear uniforms, but if they would like to participate in the unified dress code, they may do so.

The Uniform Policy is effective Monday through Friday. Participation in our school dress code is mandatory unless the School Advisory Council has granted permission.

A meeting of the parent and the Advisory Council will be necessary in order for an exemption to be granted. Please understand that exemptions are not automatic and will be granted for legitimate reasons only. You must schedule a meeting with the Advisory Council through the principal's office. Students will be required to participate in Dress for Success until the time when the parent is able to meet with the Advisory Council.

Dress Code items are readily available at Wal-Mart, Dry Falls, Burlington, Old Navy, GAP, and Academy Sports and others, in Macon. If complying with this policy will create a financial hardship for your family, please contact the counselor individually.

We appreciate your support as we work together to raise our expectations for the achievement of ALL Ingram/Pye students!
